

During a visit with Santa Clause, a foster child receives a gift from Border Patrol Agent Zenaido Ramos and CPS Supervisor Jamie Vasquez during the annual Christmas party held by the Kleberg County Child Welfare Board, along with donations from many areas business. This is the fifth year Border Patrol agents from the Kingsville sector have donated their time and money to go shopping, ensuring every Kleberg County child in the state's care had a gift to open for Christmas.

MERRY CHRISTMAS from A. G. Kleberg Elementary! Pictured, left to right front row: Candice Brandenburg, Lucas Gonzalez, Joshua Macareno, & Pedro Ibanez. L-r middle row: Kalista Garcia, Alyna Quinones, Aleyah Barbour, SANTA, Oscar Ayarzagotia, Elissa Bars; back row: Jose Tijerina, Trinidad Rios, and Jaime Montalvo.

BISHOP ELEMENTARY COLLECTED GIFTS FOR VETERANS – The Bishop Elementary students collected gifts on Veterans Day for Audie Murphy Hospital in San Antonio, to show their appreciation to the Veterans. Pictured by the gifts are Elementary Principal Carmen Gonzalez, left and 1st Vice Commander of the Bishop American Legion post 185 Lawrence W. Wolter. This project has been in place for 21 years. The members of Post 185 thank Ms. Gonzalez and all those who helped collect gifts to honor our Veterans.

Kleberg students were treated to the annual 4th grade Choir performance titled 'A Crazy Boomwhacker Christmas' conducted by Ms. Elliott. At the end of the performance, the students had a surprise visit from good old St. Nick who reminded students to continue with their good behavior both at school and at home.

WAITING FOR SANTA AND HIS REINDEER — Lamar Elementary Kindergarten students Alberto Mejia, Alynna Lopez, Christopher Mata, and Alexa Mendietta are anxiously waiting for the arrival of Santa and his reindeer!

Kleberg's PTO President Jill Seals accompanies St. Nick as he treats each faculty member to muffins and orange juice. Pictured, left to right, are Jill Seals, Michael Seals, Santa's Helper, Mrs. Torres, 2nd grade teacher, and Santa Claus.