

Public invited to children's play

Patience, perseverance and a healthy shot of determination are the keys to success—that's the message brought to life in the annual Texas A&M University-Kingsville children's play, The Great Cross Country Race.

The general public is invited to the only public performance of the play at 7 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 7 in Jones Auditorium, located on Armstrong Street, near the Santa Gertrudis Boulevard intersection. The play will be performed at 9 a.m. Feb. 8-10 for Kingsville area school children and at 9:30 a.m. Feb. 11-12 for area school children outside of Kingsville. Admission is $1 per person for all performances. The Great Cross Country

Race is a twist on the classic Aesop fable, "The Tortoise and the Hare." The play chronicles the adventures of Sloe the tortoise and Fleet the rabbit as they compete in a race through the countryside.

The play is directed by senior education and theatre major Lindsay Ramos from Falfurrias, under the direction of theatre program director Corey Ranson.

Cast members include: Marcus Perez of Bishop, freshman theater; Heidi Langschied, 8th grader from Santa Gertrudis ISD; Andrea Fowle, 8th grader from Santa Gertrudis ISD; David Langschied, 5th grader from Santa Gertrudis ISD; Ruben Herrera, H.M. King High freshman; Caitlyn Hornsby of Kingsville, 7th grader from Incarnate Word Academy.

Altar Servers of the Year

The Rev. Paul Puthenangady, pastor of Our Lady of God Counsel Church, along with altar servers sponsors Valentine and Rosario Gonzalez III, have announced that Miranda Leigh Hernandez, right, and Zachary Rodriguez were chosen as Our Lady of Good Counsel's 2010 Altar Servers of the Year. Bishop Carmody of the Diocese of Corpus Christi presented them with a plaque at a ceremony held at the Corpus Christi Cathedral. Miranda is the daughter of Thelma and Tomas Hernandez. Zachary is the son of Ted and Flor Rodriguez. The primary role of an altar server is to assist the priest in the celebration of the liturgy during Mass. This is done by specific actions and through setting an example to the congregation by active participation in the liturgy, singing of hymns, responses of the people, looking alert and sitting or standing at the appropriate times. Miranda has served the church in this role for three years and Zachary has served in this role for five years.
